WELCOME GUESTS

We are delighted that you have come to worship with us this morning. We welcome you. Please make yourself at home. This church is God's church; therefore, it is your church, too.

Sit back, relax, and enjoy our Sunday morning family celebration. We would love to have you feel so at home here that you would allow us to “adopt” you and make you part of this wonderful fellowship called the Marsing Church of the Nazarene. We sincerely hope that you enjoy your visit with us. And please come again soon.

Bill O'Connor, Pastor

Pastor returns to his periodic series on biblical prophecy and the book of Revelation as he addresses the issue of “Interpreting the Signs of the Times.” Just what are the indications of Christ's return? POINTS TO PONDER

SIN AND THE SIN NATURE

“God's purpose in the cross of Jesus Christ was two-fold: first that we might be forgiven, being saved from sin's penalty because Christ died for us, and secondly, that we might be delivered from sin's power, because this old sinful nature, called the flesh, died with Him.”

– Major Ian Thomas

“As I look at my life, I might ask “Who is the person that represents the greatest threat to me?” And if I happen to have a mirror around somewhere, I can rather quickly answer that question.”

– Craig Lounsbrough

“...mischief, ...arises not from our living in the world, but from the world living in us; occupying our hearts, and monopolizing our affections.”

– Karen Prior

No sin which we are capable of committing has ever taken God by surprise for He knew we were just like that.

– Alan Redpath

“We have a strange illusion that mere time cancels sin. But mere time does nothing either to the fact or to the guilt of a sin.”

– C. S. Lewis

“As the salt flavors every drop in the Atlantic, so does sin affect every atom of our nature. It is so sadly there, so abundantly there, that if you cannot detect it, you are deceived.”

– Charles Spurgeon

“Embrace in one act the two truths – thine own sin, and God's infinite mercy in Jesus Christ.”

– Alex MacLaren
